A Message from Our President

Come build the future of CCB as we make history with our second virtual Convention! The COVID-19 pandemic still prevents us from gathering together in person, however, we won't let that stop us from holding our Annual Conference and Convention. The 2021 CCB Convention promises to be filled with meaningful information and even some fun surprises.

The month-long event will start with beginner and advanced Zoom trainings to get you Convention ready at the end of March, then the Membership Committee kicks off the pre-convention on April 5th leading up to the main event April 22nd-25th. During our preconvention you will find interactive activities as well as presentations facilitated by our many Affiliates, Chapters, and Committees. There will be our traditional Convention business and Committee meetings, as well as games, pedestrian safety and writers' workshops, book discussions, and more. During our main event you will hear presentations and panel discussions on our organization's history, current and upcoming legislation, Conflict and Collaboration between Blindness and Cross-Disability Services, how and why inclusiveness and diversity are important to CCB, Artificial Intelligence, to mention a few, and don't forget about the fantastic Awards Banquet.

We hope you will join us for this convention that promises to be unlike anything we have ever had before!

I look forward to seeing you there!

Gabe Griffith, President
California Council of the Blind

What you need to know

The virtual convention will be held on zoom and streamed on ACB Radio. The pre-convention and the main event will each have their own designated zoom information which you will receive upon registration. The CCB Board meeting will be held on its usual zoom conference line. In addition, members who are appointed to the Nominating Committee will receive Confidential zoom information for that Committee's call.

CCB members will only be eligible to vote if they have paid their dues for 2021 and have registered for the convention. (Please note that in order to be eligible to vote you must be a paid CCB member 30 days prior to the start of the convention main event, which means you must pay your Chapter/affiliate or member at large dues by March 23, 2021.) If you are not a CCB member, you can become a member at large or learn about our local chapters and special interest affiliates by calling the CCB office at 1-800-221-6359.

You can register for the convention by visiting the CCB Convention page <http://ccbnet.org/drupal7/node/579> or by calling the office at 1-800-221-6359. The price of registration is $25.

Activities listed in this program are subject to change. Please check the CCB Convention page <http://ccbnet.org/drupal7/node/579>, often for updates prior to convention.

Thank You

I would like to thank the many people who have made this virtual convention a reality. A big shout out goes to our members who provided us with suggestions, feedback and support. Your input is valued and heard. A sincere thank you to our panelists, presenters, sponsors, and exhibitors who gave the virtual environment a chance. Gratitude to our friends at ACB Radio and CMAC for lending us your tech expertise. All of this would not be possible without the hard work, determination, and commitment of our Convention Planning Committee. This has all been made possible by the talents of Larry Gassman, John Glass, Gabe Griffith, Gene Lozano, Phil Obregon, Lisa Presley Thomas, Guillermo Robles, Jeff Thom, Alice Turner, Rob Turner, and Judy Wilkinson.

Sincerely,

Sarah Harris
